

Technical data sheet

SIMPSON

Strong-Tie

CSA-ST

Screws for Torx head connectors - Stainless steel

The stainless steel Torx screw complements the galvanized range. It is suitable for corrosive atmospheres and must be used only with stainless steel connectors.

Features

Material

- Stainless steel AISI 316.

Benefits

- Threading specific to wood allowing easy and quick penetration.

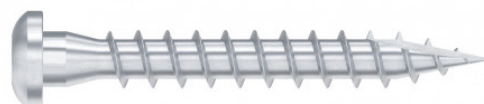

Applications

Suitable On

- Supporting / Supported member: solid wood, composite lumber, glued-laminated wood.

Scope

- Joist hanger fastening.
- Angle brackets.
- Strips.

Connect timber battens.

CSA-ST

Screws for Torx head connectors - Stainless steel

Technical Data

Product dimensions and characteristic capacities

Table "Product dimensions and characteristic capacities" cannot be displayed : no references available.

CSA-ST

Screws for Torx head connectors - Stainless steel

